

TOUR DESCRIPTION

From the bus stop in Baad, a wide trail leads gently uphill along the Bärguntbach stream to the serviced Bärgunt Hut. From there, on the other side of the stream at the foot of the Widderstein, the route continues in a moderate downhill, with occasional short climbs, to the Widderstein Alpine pasture (Widdersteinalpe). Here, the approximately 5 km long, technically easy route rejoins the already familiar path and leads back to Baad.

ROUTE DESCRIPTION

Start at the hikers' parking lot in Baad, follow the well-maintained gravel path into the Bärgunttal valley in the direction of the Bärgunthütte. The trail leads along dense forest slopes until the exposed Bärgunthütte comes into view. At the crossroads in front of the hut, turn left and follow the Bärguntbach stream back to Baad.
